

April 18, 2019 – Richard Wagner's Parsifal

Richard Wagner's final opera, Parsifal, is featured on this Maundy Thursday's expanded edition of the WCPE Opera House. The vessel that was used to serve the wine at Jesus Christ's Last Supper has been one of the supposed subjects of Holy Grail literature in Christian mythology. The quest for the Holy Grail makes up an important segment of the Arthurian cycle, combining Christian lore with a Celtic myth of a cauldron endowed with special powers. The early Grail romances centered on Percival, who—in the hands of Wagner—evolved into Parsifal. Parsifal was described by Wagner as a Bühnenweihfestspiel (stage consecration festival play). This encore performance will be introduced by the late Al Ruocchio (1937-2007).

Many years earlier, the vessel of the Holy Grail was given into the keeping of Titurel (bass Victor von Halem) and his Christian knights, as was the Sacred Spear that pierced the side of Jesus during His crucifixion. These relics have been guarded in a fortified castle at Montsalvat, a beacon of Christianity in Islamic Spain. Nearby lives the evil sorcerer Klingsor (bass Siegmund Nimsgern) and the beautiful enchantress Kundry (mezzo-soprano Dunja Vejzovic), enemies of the knights. When Titurel grew old, he handed over the Kingdom of the Grail to his son Amfortas (bass-baritone José van Dam), who—determined to kill Klingsor—entered his enemy's magic garden. There, he fell prey to Kundry's charms and lost the Sacred Spear to Klingsor. Badly wounded by the spear, Amfortas continues to suffer: only the touch of the Sacred Spear will close the gash it made.

A prophecy from the sanctuary of the Grail has told Amfortas that only a "holy fool," unaware of sin, will be able to resist Kundry and regain the Sacred Spear. The plot of the opera deals with the fulfilment of this prophecy as a guileless youth, Parsifal (tenor Peter Hofmann), is brought to the venerable knight Gurnemanz (bass Kurt Moll), charged with killing a holy swan. When it becomes clear that the boy is innocent of the crime, and entirely ignorant of the world, he is selected to rescue the Sacred Spear. He triumphs, heals Amfortas, and is anointed King of the Grail by Gurnemanz. As Amfortas and the knights kneel to Parsifal, he baptizes Kundry, who finds at last the redemption of peaceful death.

Herbert von Karajan conducts the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra and the chorus of the German State Opera of Berlin in this 1980 Deutsche Grammophon recording.

From the Act III finale, here's Peter Hofmann as Parsifal singing "Nur eine Waffe taugt": <http://youtu.be/t1KTL9dq0ww>.

Join us this Saturday, April 20th, at 1:00 p.m. for the Metropolitan Opera's production of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's La Clemenza di Tito. Joyce DiDonato sings Sesto at the Met for the first time, and Matthew Polenzani adds yet another role to his extensive Mozartean repertoire as Tito. Mozart's opera of vengeance and forgiveness, set during the Roman Empire, also stars Elza van den Heever (Vitellia), Ying Fang (Servilia), Emily D'Angelo (Annio), and Christian Van Horn (Publio). Lothar Koenigs conducts.

Please join me next Thursday, April 25th, for a rebroadcast of North Carolina Opera's January 24, 2016 performance of Peter Tchaikovsky's Eugene Onegin, which was recorded "live" at Meymandi Concert Hall in Raleigh. Joo Won Kang sings the title role and Joyce El-Khoury is Tatiana. Heard in other principal roles are Zanda Švēde (Olga), Eric Berry (Lenski), Kenneth Kellog (Prince Gremin), Robynne Redmon (Madame Larina), Victoria Livengood (Filipyevna), and Jason Ferrante (Triquet). Timothy Myers conducts the North Carolina Opera Orchestra and Chorus.

The WCPE Opera House is heard every Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Eastern time zone on 89.7 FM in central North Carolina. We're streamed "live" online at <http://www.theclassicalstation.org>, or you can listen on WCPE's Android or iPhone apps.
